REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
2. The Amendment submitted on March 3, 2004, has been entered. Claims 1 – 10 and 18 - 26 have been cancelled. Claims 11 and 27 have been amended. Therefore, the pending claims are 11 – 17 and 27.
3. The amendment is sufficient to overcome the 35 USC 103 rejection based on Shimizu et al. (4,4743,483) and the rejections based on Hepfinger (5,916,273) in view of Shimizu et al. since the Applicant has amended the claim to recite that the fabric has coated areas and uncoated areas, the fabric is then napped producing a raised pile in the napped area, while the coating prevents the yarn from being napped. Thus, the claimed fabric would have a different structure from the napped fabric taught by Shimizu et al. since Shimizu et al. discloses producing a raised pile over the entire surface of the fabric and then creating a design in the pile surface by applying water jets to discrete regions of the fabric to form regions without pile on the front surface of the fabric. Instead, the claimed fabric is limited to a fabric where only discrete regions on the front of the fabric have been napped, as set forth in the process steps recited in claim 11 and 27. Further, the process limitations would not produce a fabric with a reverse nap surface on the back of the fabric.
4. The prior art fails to teach a warp knit fabric having napped regions and unnapped regions, where the unnapped regions are produced by applying a coating to discrete regions of a fabric which prevent the yarns in those regions from being napped completely and then napping the entire fabric so that the yarns in the treated or coated regions do not lose any material or become weakened during processing. An updated search revealed no new art of record.

5. Claims 11 – 17 and 27 are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
